

Privacy Policy

The privacy of anyone associated with CATS Youth Theatre is very important to us, and how we deal with personal information is very limited. We hope the way in which we gather and use your personal information addresses and respects any concerns you may have:

We will only use the personal information we gather:

- a) in the normal course of our activities to provide products and services (e.g ticket offers, information, promotions)
- b) to identify you when you contact us
- c) to determine if we can offer you a better service or relevant products
- d) to send you e-mail or postal updates of changes which are important to you or which we feel may be of interest to you
- e) for statistical analysis, including automated techniques to monitor and analyse our activities

We will disclose your personal information only to:

- a) other CATS Youth Theatre entities which are or may be formed as part of our charitable and charitable trading activities
- b) if required or compelled to do so by law

We are registered with the Information Commissioners Office pursuant to the Data Protection Act 1998. Our registration number is Z2561530
